2.0 LAND USE ELEMENT

2.1 INTRODUCTION

2.1.1 Purpose and Function

The Land Use Element is often considered the most critical element of a General Plan. It provides overall guidance to all properties within the City through the distribution of land uses, by type, including residential, commercial, industrial, institutional, and open space. The Land Use Element identifies each land use designation's location and intensity, and its interrelationship with other land uses.

The Land Use Element translates the City's long range vision for development in the City and provides a Land Use Plan, goals, policies, and implementation programs to achieve that vision.

In order to provide guidance for the physical development of the City, the Land Use Element must take into consideration the other elements of the General Plan that identify constraints or opportunities for the development of individual properties. Issues that must be considered include transportation systems, regional drainage, utilities, and geographic and geologic constraints, among others.

2.1.2 Relationship to Other Plans and Programs

City Zoning Code

The City of Grand Terrace Zoning Code sets forth the City's standards, guidelines, and procedures relating to the development and maintenance of all land uses within the City. These regulations are intended to implement the goals and policies of the General Plan while being consistent with the designations of the Land Use Plan. They are intended to protect the physical, social, and economic stability of City residents and businesses and their property; reduce or eliminate hazards to the public; and enhance the City's physical, social, and economic advantages through comprehensive land use and resource planning.

Barton Road Specific Plan and Other Specific Plans

The Barton Road Specific Plan serves as the zoning code for most properties fronting along or directly related to Barton Road. It is intended to provide guidance for the development of predominantly commercial property along the primary transportation corridor through the City.

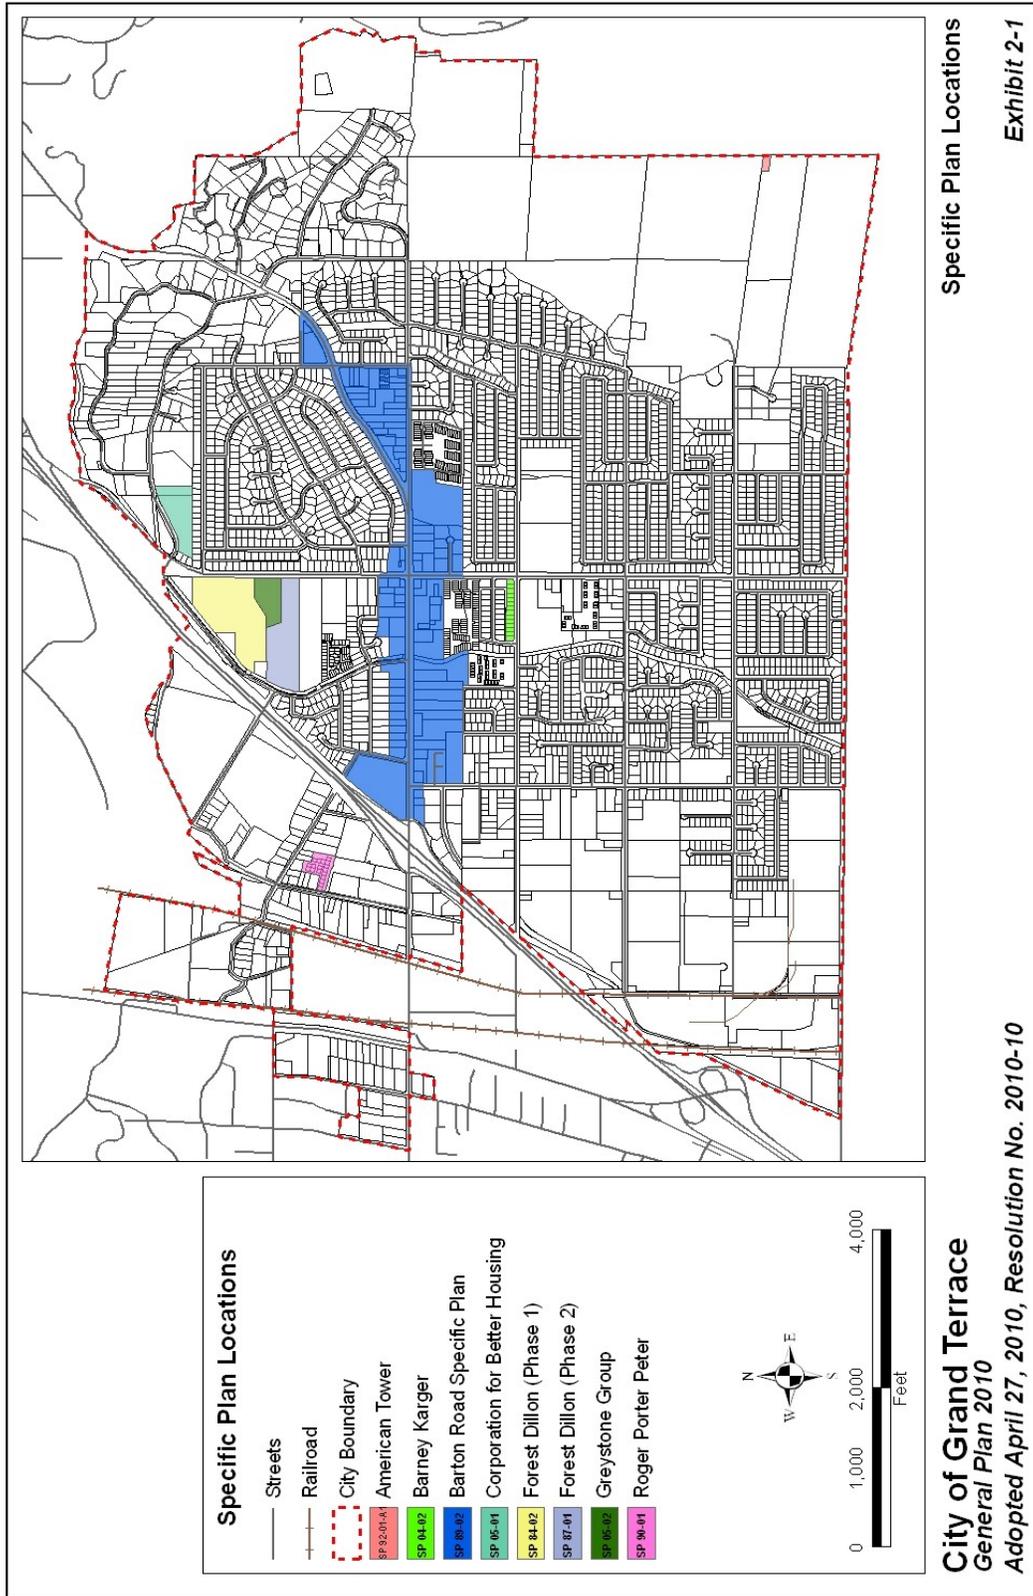

Since incorporation, the City has approved approximately 15 project-oriented Specific Plans. The locations of the Barton Road Specific Plan and other Specific Plans are identified on Exhibit

2-1. The Specific Plan properties include multi-family residential projects, small lot single family projects, commercial projects, and cellular communications projects.

Exhibit 2-1 – Specific Plan Locations

City of Colton General Plan

The City of Colton borders Grand Terrace to the north, east, and west. The area west of Interstate 215 includes pockets of Grand Terrace property intermingled with pockets of Colton property. As such, the City of Grand Terrace must carefully monitor development and land uses in the City of Colton adjacent to Grand Terrace. Development in adjacent areas of Colton have the opportunity to create land use compatibility conflicts, generate traffic problems within Grand Terrace, and potentially generate environmental hazards that could impact Grand Terrace residents. Review of the Colton General Plan offers Grand Terrace the opportunity to plan accordingly and cooperate with Colton to ensure land use compatibility, improve efficiencies in public services, and mitigate potential environmental impacts generated by future development.

County of Riverside General Plan

The County of Riverside's unincorporated community of Highgrove lies immediately south of Grand Terrace. This area is projected to experience significant future growth that could potentially impact Grand Terrace in a similar manner as the City of Colton. Careful review and monitoring of development within this area will again allow Grand Terrace to plan accordingly and cooperate with Riverside County to ensure land use compatibility, improve efficiencies in public services, and mitigate potential environmental impacts generated by future development.

Sphere of Influence

The Sphere of Influence of the City of Grand Terrace encompasses its current City limit boundaries. It lies adjacent to the City of Colton to the north, east, and west. The County of Riverside lies immediately to the south. There are no opportunities to annex adjacent unincorporated San Bernardino County lands.

2.1.3 Relationship to Other Elements

The Land Use Element has the broadest scope of all the General Plan's elements. Since it governs how land is used throughout the City, virtually all issues and policies contained in other elements relate to the decisions to be made by the Land Use Element.

Examples of these relationships include the need to provide a circulation system to allow residents and workers to travel between land uses, and to ensure that the street system is adequate to serve intended lands uses. Residential uses must be protected from incompatible uses that could generate significant noise, air pollution or other hazards that might impact the residents. All land uses involving structures must be protected from man-made and natural hazards such as flooding, fires, and seismic events.

2.2 EXISTING CONDITIONS

Grand Terrace is predominantly a residential community. The City was formerly an unincorporated bedroom community surrounded by the City of Colton. Predominant commercial and industrial activities focused along regional transportation corridors in other areas of Colton leaving Grand Terrace to primarily develop as a single family residential community. Since the majority of the community is located on the west side of Blue Mountain, the terrain offered scenic views that attracted residents while making large scale development of commercial and industrial uses more difficult.

The majority of the remaining undeveloped land is located on Blue Mountain, in the Santa Ana River floodplain, or adjacent to the I-215 Freeway.

Table 2.1 summarizes existing land use categories, by acreage, as noted in the existing City General Plan. As illustrated, 54 percent of all land within the City limits is designated for residential uses.

Goal 2.1. Provide for balanced growth which seeks to provide a wide range of employment and housing opportunities and maintenance of a healthy, diversified community.

Policy 2.1.1: Implementation of general plan goals shall be reviewed every five years with the first review occurring one year after adoption of the General Plan. This will include an assessment of the relationship between general plan land use designations and existing land uses at the time of the review as well as growth patterns in surrounding communities.

Goal 2.5 Provide for the preservation of natural resources and open space.

Policy 2.5.1 All areas of Blue Mountain above elevation 1,450 feet above sea level shall be maintained as open space. Consideration shall be given to the maintenance of existing communications towers.

Policy 2.5.2 Areas designated as Open Space shall be preserved to provide long term recreation opportunities as well as the preservation of scenic and environmental resources and the protection of public health and safety.

Policy 2.5.3 Energy efficiency shall be encouraged in all future development.

2.4 LAND USE PLAN

2.4.1 Land Use Map

As required by State law, the General Plan must identify land use designations and permitted development intensities. General plans must also provide a diagram indicating the locations of each land use type. These components are included in this section of the Land Use Element. Exhibit 2-2 presents the Land Use Map that identifies the specific land use designation of individual parcels throughout the City. Table 2.2 provides a general breakdown of acreage by land use designation and its percentage of total area within the City.

2.4.2 Land Use Designations

Land use designations are provided in order to define the amount, type, and nature of future development that will be allowed in a given location in the City. The following section defines each land use designation shown on the Land Use Plan and provides its density range and general development standards required in accordance with State law.

Each land use designation is typically implemented by a defined set of zoning designations included in the City's Zoning Code. The Zoning Code contains detailed regulations relating to permitted and conditional uses allowed within each zone, site development standards, and performance criteria that serve to implement the goals and policies of the General Plan.

Table 2.3 provides a description of each land use designation of the Land Use Plan.

City of Grand Terrace
General Plan Land Use Designations

Land Use Designation	Purpose of Land Use
RESIDENTIAL
Hillside Low Density Residential (HLDR) Maximum Density – 1 dwelling unit per gross acre	The hillside areas of Blue Mountain located at the far eastern edge of the City are considered a natural resource that requires special consideration to protect the scenic views and environmental resources of the mountain. Any development proposed within the Hillside designation will require special evaluation of all environmental issues and must include provisions for the protection of all natural resources within the area. Properties within the designated areas must demonstrate that building pads and streets can be graded with minimal impact to the hillside and views, and that adequate utilities and public services, including drainage, domestic water, sanitary sewer, fire protection can be provided. Proposed developments within this area shall be required to prepare a Specific Plan. Clustered development that protects sensitive slopes and natural resources shall be strongly encouraged.
Low Density Residential (LDR) Density Range - 0 to 5 dwelling units per gross acre	The Low Density Residential designation limits land uses to single family detached residential units and mobile homes subject to the applicable General Plan policies and Zoning Code provisions. This designation encompasses the majority of property within the City and is largely associated with existing housing developments throughout the City.
Medium Density Residential (MDR) Density Range – 6 to 12 dwelling units per gross acre.	The Medium Density Residential designation include both single family detached and multiple family attached developments. Permitted uses within these areas may include small lot single family developments or attached multi-family developments including townhomes, condominiums, and apartments. Mobile home developments are also permitted. A density bonus may be applied to a project pursuant to the density bonus provisions of Chapter 4.3 of the California Government Code, or pursuant to an approved Planned Residential Development application up to a 20% density bonus may be granted.
Medium High Density Residential (MHDR) Maximum Density - 20 dwelling units per gross acre	The Medium High Density Residential designation is reserved for multiple family development, with an emphasis on affordable housing projects. This designation may also be applied as an overlay to another land use designation to allow multi-family development at a density of 20 to 24 units/acre as an optional alternative to the base land use designation. A density bonus may be applied to a project pursuant to the density bonus provisions of Chapter 4.3 of the California Government Code, or pursuant to an approved Planned Residential Development application for up to a 20% density bonus.

City of Grand Terrace
General Plan Land Use Designations

Land Use Designation	Purpose of Land Use
COMMERCIAL
General Commercial (GC)	This designation is primarily located along Barton Road and near the I-215 Freeway. It provides for general commercial uses to serve the retail and service needs of the community.
Office Commercial (OC)	Office commercial uses are used as a buffer between residential areas and general commercial areas. The properties designated for Office Commercial uses are primarily located along Barton Road east of Mount Vernon Avenue and north of Barton Road west of Mount Vernon Avenue. Permitted uses may include office/administrative uses and support retail and service commercial uses
INDUSTRIAL
Light Industrial (LI)	Permitted uses for properties designated as Light Industrial include those uses that can be made compatible with other surrounding uses within the City regarding noise, dust, odors, vibration, glare, air quality, traffic, aesthetics, and hazardous materials. Typical uses may include light manufacturing and assembly, small scale warehousing and distribution, research and development, and administrative and service types of uses.
Floodplain Industrial (FI)	Properties designated with the Floodplain Industrial designation experience the potential for severe flooding resulting from their proximity to the Santa Ana River. Properties within this designation are planned for ultimate development as light industrial, non-polluting uses similar to the Light Industrial designation. Proposed developments must demonstrate that adequate measures can be implemented to ensure that the proposed use is effectively protected from identified flood hazards. Presently, parcels within this area are largely undeveloped or developed as rural residential land uses. It is anticipated that buildout of this area will occur over a long period of time. During this buildout period, existing residential uses shall be permitted and regulated under the requirements of the Low Density Residential land use designation. Light agricultural uses shall be permitted including the keeping of animals with the approval of an Agricultural Overlay zoning designation.
INSTITUTIONAL
Public (P)	Public uses may include schools, parks, the City Hall, City maintenance facilities and facilities owned and operated by public utilities.

OPEN SPACE
Hillside Open Space (OS)	Properties designated as Hillside Open Space are those that should not be developed as urban land uses due to environmental resources, environmental constraints or scenic resources. These are primarily located along the western and northern slopes of Blue Mountain. Properties designated as Hillside Open Space shall be retained in their natural condition and used as either natural open space or parkland. They may be either publicly or privately owned.
MIXED USE
Mixed Use (MU)	Properties designated as mixed use are intended to be developed with multiple uses on a single site. This may include residential, commercial, business park, open space, and recreational uses. Compatible uses may be placed horizontally or vertically on the site. All Mixed Use projects shall be required to submit a Specific Plan or Planned Development that demonstrates compatibility between the proposed uses as well as buffering from adjacent properties, if warranted. Densities may not exceed those of the residential, commercial and industrial designations of the General Plan and zoning.

2.4.3 Buildout Analysis

Table 2.4 presents an analysis of residentially designated land and the total number of estimated dwelling units and population at ultimate buildout. As illustrated, at ultimate development of the residential component of the Plan, the City population is estimated to be approximately 15,747. These estimates are based upon the total acreage by land use type, an average probable density in dwelling units per acre, and the City’s current average population per household. The analysis also assumes that certain properties with higher density designations that are currently underutilized would be redeveloped to the average designation’s density.

Non-residential land uses comprise approximately 41 percent of all land within the City and include employee generating commercial and industrial property as well as open space lands. Table 2.5 summarizes the build out of non-residential uses and their potential employment generation. As illustrated, at buildout, a total approximately 11,450 jobs may be available within the City.
